Catholic Social Teaching

This week, we are reflecting on the Catholic Social Teaching principle of Distributive Justice. This principle reminds us that everyone should have fair access to the resources they need, including food, water, shelter and clothing. God's world provides us with many gifts, and we have a responsibility to ensure these are shared fairly so that nobody is left without the essentials they need to thrive.

In Acts 2:44-45, we hear how the early Christians "had all things in common" and shared what they had with those in need. This teaches us the importance of generosity, fairness and looking beyond our own needs to help others. As followers of Jesus, we are called to challenge unfairness and work towards a world where everyone is treated with dignity and compassion.

At OLMC, we promote distributive justice by living out our school values of being Happy, Caring, Valued, Unique and Successful. Whether we are sharing resources in the classroom, supporting charities or ensuring everyone has the opportunity to participate and succeed, we can all make a difference. This week, we encourage our whole OLMC family to think about how we can share what we have and help others, remembering that everyone should have access to their fair share of God's gifts.

What a fantastic half term we have had at OLMC! Our children have worked incredibly hard, shown wonderful enthusiasm for their learning and continued to give their very best in everything they do. It has been lovely to see them growing in confidence, celebrating their achievements and living out our school values of being Happy, Caring, Valued, Unique and Successful. I am incredibly proud of the effort and positive attitudes shown by our children and would like to thank our dedicated staff for all they do to make OLMC such a special place to learn and grow. I hope all our families enjoy a restful and well-deserved half-term break, spending precious time together and recharging their batteries. We look forward to welcoming everyone back for another exciting half term, filled with new learning opportunities, memorable experiences and lots more to celebrate. Thank you for being such a wonderful part of our OLMC family!

well done!

What we need...

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is currently seeking members of our community to join our Local Academy Committee as a governor within the St Francis Catholic Multi Academy Trust. This is a wonderful opportunity to support our school in ensuring that we deliver the best possible Catholic education for our children.

The commitment of our LAC governors is simply three meetings in the school year. For those who have more time to spare, this commitment can grow to visiting the school more regularly, supporting school improvement areas and being involved in school inspection and evaluation. If you are interested in supporting us, we would love to hear from you! Please contact Mrs Mitchell to let us know of your interest and we will arrange to contact you.
